CHOOSE SUSTAINABILITY

To ensure a brighter future for the world and generations to come, we at KIAN have begun taking sustainable steps in order to help save our planet from pollution and curb this growing epidemic. By partnering ourselves with a fully integrated recycling company in Malaysia, Plashaus, we have succeeded in manufacturing our award-winning Louvre and 120 chairs using sustainable Ocean Plastic (OP), with more products in the works.

OP is made of recycled ocean-bound plastics that have been ethically gathered from coastlines around Malaysia. Both of our companies worked closely with each other for months, prototyping multiple iterations to perfect the suitable material pellet formula which was then used to fabricate strong, sturdy and sustainable chairs fit for commercial use.

By giving our customers this sustainable option, we would like to invite you to join us on our journey towards sustainability. Make the change with us for a greener, healthier Mother Earth.

Odeon

The Odeon collection is stylistic, and emanating a strong Art Nouveau influence. However, despite taking cue from the art movement it leaves the outlandish ornaments, curved lines and intricate, organic details. The collection instead boasts clear and refined line. Exhaling elegance into the air it surrounds. Designed with comfort and artistry at the cusp, it is a perfect addition to any space, home or common areas.

Ebony

Minimalistic and elegant, the Ebony features a simple thin table top that is paired with subtle, yet beautifully detailed legs. The inspiration for this design is taken from the idea of wrapping paper around things. The shape of the folded metal legs creates stability and strength, and the legs are placed at the far end of each corner to make as much space as possible for chairs. The Ebony is available in various sizes, materials and colours, so you can mix and match to best suit your preferences.

Knots

Drawing inspiration from the age-old Bauhaus school, the Knots is an elegantly simple design that charms you with its geometrical volumes. The table utilises prismatic “boxes” that act as the knots of the structure, as well as an ingenious assembly system, to hide any screws from sight. This gives the knots a clear chameleonic aspect, whether the decadent luxury of its brass version or the modern industrial look of its matt black version. Many kinds of table tops can be paired with the Knots, but the transparent glass top which leaves all the beautiful steel work and luxurious marble uncovered is undoubtedly our favourite.

Cut

At first glance, the Cut seems like a simple design, but upon closer inspection reveals a more complicated exercise of abstraction. Starting out with the basic profile of a table, two very different leg and table top proportions were then introduced to interrupt the balance of the design. Adding in a deep cut to each table leg, this changes the look of the Cut when viewed from different angles, giving the silhouette an air of luxury and creativity around it.

Bonde

Shaken, not stirred. The dashing Bonde is the perfect addition to dining and social environments in need of a luxurious finish. Six angled metal stands make up the main structure of the table base and are placed in unison to exude an air of class, with the added benefit of great stability. Due to the nature of the design, the Bonde can easily be flat packed to save on space and shipping costs.

Daun

The design of this quaint table top was inspired by the shape of a leaf. Hence, the name Daun, meaning leaf in the Malay language. Small and easily manoeuvrable, the Daun is perfect to be paired with sofas in public areas or workspaces. You can even combine two Dauns together to give yourself a conveniently bigger table space. When not in use or the need for more space arises, the Daun can be neatly kept by pushing it into the sofa.
